

ASPIRE

to be a greater public service

ESDC's Office of Values and Ethics
Human Resources Services Branch

About ASPIRE

ASPIRE is an initiative launched by Employment and Social Development Canada's Office of Values and Ethics that will engage employees in a movement to achieve a greater public service.

Our Mission

To foster a positive and healthy workplace culture built on a foundation of respect, ethical practices, knowledge sharing, open communication and employee engagement.

Our Objectives

Contribute to a positive and respectful workplace

Collaborate and innovate

Inform and Support

Connect With Us

Human Resources Service Centre

GCpedia

GCIntranet

GCconnex

GCdirectory

Our Events

Tea X Talk

April 5th 2017

Ask Me Anything

May 2017

Movie@Work

November 2017

Our Philosophy

The Butterfly Effect: Be mindful that every positive action, no matter how big or small, will have a ripple effect on others and on the organizational culture

Our Ideals

Civility

Respect

Empowerment